

The New Jersey Do Not Call law is a wonderful way of assuring the rights of privacy in our own homes according to the Bill of Rights. Telemarketers' Freedom of Speech does not allow them to infringe on the rights of others. NJ's Do Not Call law should remain as is. I, for one, do not feel I should be disturbed by these calls. Some even call on Sundays and Christian holidays. This is uncalled for.